

Dear ,

I am thrilled to report that March 2010 brought us over a million website sessions - a monthly record. Details about this milestone achievement and the fact that now 1,159 schools around the world use ProCon.org appear below.

We have also happily been up to our ears in new research. Check out some of our latest information about D.A.R.E, prescription drug advertising, college football playoffs, and more.

1. ProCon.org Surpasses One Million Monthly Sessions

In March 2010, ProCon.org received 1,026,399 website sessions - the first time we have received over a million sessions in a month. The new record marked a 90% increase in traffic over Mar. 2009. Our first quarter traffic of 2010 was an 88% increase over the first three months of 2009. We are thrilled that so many teachers, students and others are finding our free and unbiased content so useful. A big thanks to all our readers, supporters, and donors for helping us to attain this milestone in our effort to promote critical thinking for a better tomorrow.

2. Should prescription drugs be advertised directly to consumers?

Read pro and con opinions from organizations such as the FDA and the American College of Physicians, medical doctors such as Harvard Medical School's Dr. Jerry Avorn, pharmaceutical industry representatives such as Alan F. Holmer, JD, as well as various other business leaders, activists, physicians, and more.

3. Should college football replace the Bowl Championship Series \(BCS\) with a playoff system?

Read the pro and con opinions of President Obama, Congressman Joe Barton, former USC football coach Pete Carroll, University of Oklahoma football coach Bob Stoops, the Bowl Championship Series, as well as sportswriters, economists, and others.

4. Is the D.A.R.E. program good for America's kids \(K-12\)?

Read the top pro, con, and not clearly pro or con arguments from D.A.R.E., President Obama, the Office of the Surgeon General, the Government Accountability Office, as well as policemen, economists, schools, and others.

5. ProCon.org has now been used by 1,159 schools in 26 countries and all 50 US states.

We are thrilled to have 213 elementary and middle schools, 528 high schools, and 418 colleges and universities using our free nonpartisan research.

(Teachers and librarians, please take our 2-minute survey and let us know what you think about ProCon.org.)

If you like what we do, please support us with a tax-deductible donation today!

All supporters are recognized on the ProCon.org Donors page (unless you prefer anonymity) and, if you donate $100 or more, we'll send you a thank you and one of our cool, colorful, new ProCon.org caps.

Thanks as always for your interest in our work.

Sincerely,

Kamy Akhavan
