Dear Kambiz,

We recently launched our new video on felon voting, the 5th in our Critical Thinking Video Series.

Our latest research updates are listed below and include information on: automatic restoration of the vote to convicted felons, the top 10 pro and con arguments in the felon voting debate, states with pending legislation to legalize medical marijuana, and our recent headline articles.

FELON VOTING

NEW - Critical Thinking Video Series: Felon Voting - Should felons be allowed to vote? - Some people argue that felon voting laws are unfair and racially discriminatory, while others say that felons have forfeited the right to vote by committing a crime. Explore both sides of the debate in ProCon.org's latest video.

Top 10 Pros and Cons: Should felons be allowed to vote? - Read our top 10 pro and top 10 con statements in the felon voting debate. The 20 different sources debate the issues of felony disenfranchisement and race, voting while in prison, political party affiliation of felons, trusting a felon's judgment, and more.

Should Felons Automatically Regain the Vote after Their Full Sentence (Including Probation/Parole) Is Served? - Read our new question with statements from Attorney General Eric Holder (Pro), Governor of Florida Rick Scott (Con), former Virginia Governor Robert McDonnell (Pro), Iowa Governor Terry Branstad (Con), and others.

MEDICAL MARIJUANA

15 States with Pending Legislation to Legalize Medical Marijuana - Bills that would legalize medical marijuana are being considered in 15 states (FL, GA, KS, KY, MD, MN, MS, MO, NY, OH, PA, TN, UT, WV, WI). An additional five states (AL, GA, IN, NC, SC) are considering legislation that are favorable towards medical marijuana but would not legalize it.
