

Dear ,

The San Diego Science Festival donated a double booth to ProCon.org, and we spent last Saturday (March 27, 2010) interacting with hundreds of students, teachers, parents, scientists, and others. It was an amazing day, and we've got some pictures and details to share with you (see below).

ProCon.org also released its newest (and 32nd) issue website earlier today about concealed handguns. Details about this website and some of our other recent content are listed below.

1. NEW ProCon.org Website! Should responsible adults have the right to carry a concealed handgun?

48 states allow for the concealed carry of handguns. Proponents argue that carrying concealed handguns deters crime and is a right granted by the Second Amendment. Opponents counter that concealed guns lead to more crime and increase the chances of arguments becoming lethal.

2. ProCon.org a Hit at the 2010 San Diego, CA Science Festival

500-600 people participated in our interactive booth, including students, teachers, scientists, parents, and others. Check out some of our photos from the event to see how much critical thinking took place in our booth.

3. Health Care: Top Pro, Con, & Not Clearly Pro or Con Quotes on the Right to Health Care

Read arguments made by US Presidents Ronald Reagan, Barack Obama, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, US Senator Ted Kennedy, the CEO of Whole Foods, professors, physicians, and others.

4. Felon Voting: State Felon Voting Laws - Updated Chart

Learn which states allow felons to vote in jail and which states take away the vote permanently even when the felon has completed the sentence, parole, probation, and paid all fines. The full text of each state's law is now available.

All supporters are recognized on the ProCon.org Donors page (unless you prefer anonymity), and if you donate over $100 we'll send you one of our cool new ProCon.org caps.

Thanks as always for your interest in our work.
