We've had some great research highlights recently, and I'd like to share some of them with you below.

2. Sports and Drugs: Floyd Landis admits to using performance enhancing drugs for most of his career.

Learn about the doping techniques that Landis says he used over his career including EPO, HGH, testosterone, and blood transfusions.

3. Euthanasia: Would insurance companies or HMOs encourage physician-assisted suicide or euthanasia if those options were legally available?

Read pro and con arguments by Compassion & Choices, the International Task Force on Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide, the Death with Dignity National Center, and others.

4. Updated: 5-Star Sources in Theoretical Expertise Rankings

Thanks to great input from three readers, we have now added peer-reviewed studies to government reports as a 5-star source. Thanks again to John, Anne, and Mark for your terrific comments.
