PRO/CON @ The Pier - The Return of Civil Discourse

The Return of Civil Discourse is a non-partisan discussion series featuring policy experts and independent moderators to better inform public discourse before Election Day. It is a partnership between ProCon.org and the Santa Monica Pier. PRO/CON @ The Pier is free, open to the public, and takes place at the West End of the Pier.

The first three events on GMOs, the death penalty, and college affordability, have already taken place and you can view photos and watch the first three debates online. This coming Tuesday Nov. 1 will be our last debate on marijuana legalization.

Media Literacy Week (October 31 - November 4) - For this important week in education, we give you:

1. 20+ free lesson plan ideas to help with distinguishing fact from opinion, addressing counterarguments, primary source analysis, and recognizing cause effect, etc. Teachers can also use our free Advanced Placement resources to help advance critical thinking in 24 different AP courses.
2. A marijuana legalization debate on November 1 at the Santa Monica Pier. We want to get past the misinformation and hyper-partisan rhetoric in order to have an honest and critical conversation about whether or not cannabis should be legalized.

ProCon.org Used by Educators in More than 8,300 Schools! - We thank the teachers in 8,369 schools that have used our free resources in your instructional materials.
