1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Search engine (Google, Yahoo, Bing, etc.)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Academy for Math, Engineering & Science

My name: - Laurie Oberg

My title: - Teacher

My city: - Salt Lake City

My state
(or country if not in the United States): - UT

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

Provides cited information about different sides of an issue

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

Often students have no idea that there is any other way to think about a controversial issue than the way they currently perceive the issue.

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I required students to write an essay supporting the opposite of their own opinion on the topic of whether or not "under God" should be retained in the Pledge of Allegiance. ProCon.org gives them a place to begin looking for credible arguments on the other side of the issue.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Language Arts

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

I think you're doing a great job.
