4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Auburn Mountainview High School

My name: - Norene Osborne

My title: - Social Studies Teacher

My city: - Auburn

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - Washington

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

My AP United States Government & Politics classes are doing an issues and public opinion project where they must research a two-sided controversial issue and create a scientific poll to create a graph of the political climate of that topic in our school. Your site was an invaluable source of information.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Civics/Government

Economics

History

Political Science

Public Policy

Social Studies

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

No, thanks. Not interested.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

Adding more political issues
