1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Search engine (Google, Yahoo, etc.)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. What subject(s) do you teach?

English

Library/Reference

4. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

5. If you answered "yes" to #4 above, did your students find ProCon.org useful?

If you answered "no" to #4 above, then please skip this question.

Yes

We use it as a reference guide to hear both sides of issues when we are doing persuasive writing

6. If you answered "yes" to #4 above, do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

If you answered "no" to #4 above, then please skip this question.

Yes

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library (if at all)? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I download the topics that relate to prompts assigned to students. They jot down the arguments they like and the ones that counter them. They then have to write an essay defending their point of view and find examples to support their ideas.

8. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

9. Where do you teach?

School - Benjamin E. Mays High School

City - Atlanta

State or Country - GA

Optional: Name and title - Angelann Stephens, Teacher
