

Curriculum Connections: Upper School Mr. Leet

Ethics & Science

Begin exploring your topic through the resources listed below. If you need help determining if a journal article is peer-reviewed, or if a web site is credible, just ask us.

If you need help finding resources, or if you need a book from Ohio State, please fill out the purple request sheet and review it with us.

Search Engines:

Google

Ixquick: Metasearcher – searches 12 search engines (not google)

<http://www.ixquick.com/>

Remember to add search operators (+, -, OR) to narrow your search:

Euthanasia+religion

Library Catalogs (Academy, Ohio State, Public Libraries):

<http://library.columbusacademy.org/catalogs.html>

search by “keyword” or “all word”

Specific Web Sites:

BBC Religions & Ethics

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion/religions/>

also: BBC Ethical Issues: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion/ethics/>

Social Issues; Multnomah County Library; information on many social issues; be sure to review the General Social Issue listings

<http://www.multcolib.org/homework/sohc.html>

Controversial Issues; lists megasites, for/against, and legislation on many topics; similar to Multnomah, but offers some different links-- worth looking at both

<http://www.twinlakes.k12.in.us/info/library/connection/contro.htm>

ProCon.org; great for euthanasia and medical marijuana; limited topics, but good resources for the ones they cover

<http://www.procon.org/>

Religion Facts; good information for euthanasia

<http://www.religionfacts.com/euthanasia/index.htm>

