I have used for ideas for debate, in history, or medical issues. The students are sent to your site, then they must further research the subject at hand. They may not use Wikipedia, and must find, read, and use at least 2 books, 3 periodicals, and 2-4 web sites. As they will soon be moving on to a either a 2 - 4 year college or technical college, I believe it is imperative that each student be knowledgeable about the resources available to them for their use.

Yes

10. Additional comments or suggestions:

I enjoy your site immensely and have suggested it to most of my colleagues. Whenever we find a site we believe will be helpful, we print off the web site and info. about what is available and post on bulletin board. Thank you for your work on this site. My son finished William and Mary in Law and Public Policy. He told me of your site and stated that they use it frequently. Thought you might enjoy knowing how many people you help.
