

Resources for English 2A Students

The Modern Language Association This link takes you to the web site for the 7th edition of the MLA Handbook. Please do not buy the handbook. We will use information from this site in class to learn how to reference sources for your research paper.	CRAAP TEST The CRAAP test is a test to evaluate the credibility of a source used in your papers. You are required to use it in English 3 to evaluate sources. If I question the credibility of your source, I'm using this test to form my opinion. Modified Version	Controversial Topics Are you having difficulties identifying a topic for your research paper? Try one of the following sites. Some of the sites even provide research links. From about.com ProCon.org Santa Ana College Quetia Online Library Speech Topics	Fremont Area District Library When we are doing research in class, you are allowed to get a pass from me and sign out in the main office and then to go to the public library. This link is the library's home page. To search their online catalog, look at the links on the left-hand side of the screen. Many journals and magazines are available through the available databases.
The OWL Purdue University provides a very helpful writing resource center. This link takes you directly to the MLA 2009 Formatting and Style Guide Page.	The MLA Citation Generator Type your information into the fields, click on a button, copy and paste the results into a Word document. Double check the results, but this site almost makes MLA citations easy.	A+ Writing A+ Writing is a tutorial that helps students understand how to prepare a research paper in any content area. Use the table of contents to find the section that is most useful to you.
Persuasive Essay Builder While this tool will not write a passing essay for you, it may help you see how you might connect your ideas together. Instead of have three strong points of support, it ask you to present a paragraph that rebuts the opposing view.			