1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Friend/Associate

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

Community College

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Hostos Community College, City University of New York

My name: - Miriam Laskin

My title - Dr.

My city: - New York

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - New York

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

They like it as much as Opposing Viewpoints (Gale) and it is great at presenting the pro's and con's, and good, cited statistics.

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

I love that students can be active participants in the debates presented on ProCon.org by adding their own comments and reading other "non-experts" comments. This is a brilliant way to include students in the debates.

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I am just beginning to use ProCon.org and when I have more of a lesson plan I'll be glad to share it with you. Thanks so much for this web resource.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Something Else

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

You might want to add "information literacy" to the list of subjects respondents can check off that they teach, since as an academic librarian, my classes are in Information Literacy and I had to choose "Something Else" as what I teach.
