I was referred by (please specify): - list of best free reference websites article

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - James F. Byrnes High School

My name: - Jamie Gregory

My title - English teacher

My city: - Duncan

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - SC

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

 Yes

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below

I think this website is awesome! I discovered it after the current school year started, so I do plan to develop lesson plans using this website for later in this school year or for next school year. It provides a helpful introduction to students learning how to analyze current events and how to write argumentative essays. Also, it introduces visual sources to students and how to use them as part of an argument as well.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Communications

English

Journalism

Language Arts

Media

Speech/Debate

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

Yes, please.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?
