1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Another website (not a search engine)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Jefferson High School

My name: - Diana Hoke

My title - Librarian

My city: - Lafayette

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - Indiana

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

Yes, it provides facts and not just opinions. The set up of the site allows students to consider various angles to controversial questions.

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I use it with senior composition students who research and choose a side on a controversial issue for their major research paper assignment. Also, I have shared the site with our Current Issues class in the social studies department and with the debate classes in our language arts department.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Library/Reference

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

No, thanks. Not interested.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

The only suggestion is one that I'm sure you continually strive for: add even more topics.
