Here are the sites we shared in class to assist you with your research:

- This one is ABC-CLIO's Issues Database
 - To use this database from home, please enter the following user name & password
 - User name: ksmaui, Password: warrior
- This one is Gale's Opposing Viewpoints in Context
- This one is Gale's Global Issues in Context
- If link does not work, you might be able to type it in as follows: <http://infotrac.galegroup.com/itweb/hono60741/>

The following are some Internet sites of interest that may assist you in selecting a topic:

- International Debate Education Association - <http://www.idebate.org/portal/>
- Pros & Cons of Controversial issues – <http://www.procon.org/>
- Multnomah Social Issues – <http://www.multcolib.org/homework/sochc.html>
- You Think – <http://youthink.worldbank.org/issues>
- Social Issues Research Centre – <http://www.sirc.org/>
- Public Agenda for Citizens – <http://www.publicagenda.org/citizen>

This Google custom search searches any HOT TOPICS websites. It seems to work pretty well....try it.

<http://www.google.com/cse/home?cx=006111857505466247030:uowgzh-ei7i>

If you have a topic of local interest, you will want to search the archives for the Hawaii Newspapers...located at the site below:

- <http://www.staradvertiser.com/archives/>

As the assignment progresses, check back here for links to assist you in the process.

- Cambridge Rindge & Latin School's Research Guide – http://www.crlsresearchguide.org/oo_basic_steps.asp
- How do I do note cards? – <http://www.fairfieldschools.org/wardehs/cwardehs03/notecards.htm>
- How do I create a thesis? – <http://tommarch.com/electraguide/>
- how to post to “turnitin.com”
- a tool to help you use proper MLA format -
 - Noodle Tools <http://noodletools.com/login.php>
 - Easy Bib How to use “Noodle Tools”

Please email Mrs. Kimoto at gekimoto@ksbe.edu or reply to this post ANYTIME you need help with something. I will respond as soon as I can. Good luck!
