Teacher/Librarian

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

College/University

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Lamar University

My name: - Ruth Stanley

My title - Instructor, Dept of Communication

My city: - Beaumont

My state
(or country if not in the United States): - TX5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

learning to look at BOTH sides of an issue and consider the viewpoint of "the other"

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I introduce the students to the site as a source for their speeches [informative and persuasive] to gather quick info on BOTH sides of an issue, even for informative speeches.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Communications

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

Please make the citations of the info you use more obvious - I do NOT want my students to plagiarize, and a quick link to the original source of info would be imminently helpful in their research.
