2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Las Vegas High School

My name: - Ilona Watts

My title - Teacher

My city: - Las Vegas

My state
(or country if not in the United States): - Nevada5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

It presents both sides of an issue

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

This year we teamed with the 9th grade science teachers and researched alternate forms of energy. The English teachers required their students to choose a side of whether their alternative energy was worth while, or not. ProCon.org was a valuable source for them to be able to do the assignment.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

English

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

No, thanks. Not interested.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?
