1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Search engine (Google, Yahoo, Bing, etc.)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Legacy High School

My name: - Ms. L. Ingram

My title - Teacher

My city: - North Las Vegas

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - Nevada

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

It is a starting point for my debaters. The views of both sides is more than wonderful. They understand the complexity of many topics.

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

The students are able to see and understand both sides.

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I use the website for many assignments. I post it on the LCD, students read the background information, and begin discussion. I pick topics to use for Public Forum debates. The timelines allow for an awareness assignment on controversial topics.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Communications

English

Language Arts

Speech/Debate

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

I love it! :)
