1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Search engine (Google, Yahoo, Bing, etc.)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - McKeel Academy of Technology

My name: - Robert Kuhnert

My title - Teacher

My city: - Lakeland

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - FL

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

We research controversial issues prior to discussing them in my Honors American Government classes. ProCon.org is one of the best sources for this research. Following the class discussion, students must make an entry in their online Issues Journals detailing what they believe about the issue and why they believe what they do. ProCon.org is perfect for exposing students to a variety of perspectives on an issue which translates into greater tolerance and understanding of opposing viewpoints during positive and respectful discourse during class discussions.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Civics/Government

Economics

Law

Global Studies

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

Yes, please.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

I greatly appreciate a resource that presents a variety of perspectives on each major issue. I have found your website to be an invaluable tool in the research of controversial subjects that are currently facing our citizens and our legislature.
