Books

The library has books on many social issues topics. Check Mr. Wozny's cart to see if there is something there that pertains to your topic. Use Word and Phrase search to find books on your topic in \*\*iBistro\*\* (library catalog). The following book series in the 300 section will be specially helpful: Opposing Viewpoints, At Issue, Current Controversies, Library in a Book, or Issues in Focus.

OneSearch

Use OneSearch to find articles in our databases. Check the "Social Issues" category box to search the databases that will have the most information for this paper. If you want to search individual databases, scroll down and link directly to each database from the list under the search boxes. The best databases to use individually for your topics will be SIRS Researcher, eLibrary, Issues and Controversies, and Gale Student Resource Center Bronze.

Websites

The following websites will have information and links pertaining to your topics:

Multnomah County Library Website on Social Issues Topics - Lists of websites to support current issues projects.

ProCon.org - nonprofit organization dedicated to presenting both sides of current social issues.
