We have a great set of issue-based reference books. Check out TAKING SIDES at R300 Tak. Also, don't forget to try looking up your topic in the library catalog.

SIRS: Leading Issues (in NNHS Library only)

From the main menu, click 'Leading Issues' box on the right. A comprehensive list of the most frequently researched issues in the SIRS database. Each issue is a hotlink to a set of articles on the issue. To access from home, see a librarian at NNHS for password.

Funding for SIRS is provided by Newton Public Schools.

CQ Researcher (in NNHS Library only)

Founded in 1923 as Editorial Research Reports, The CQ Researcher is the choice of researchers seeking original, comprehensive reporting and analysis on issues in the news. Published in print and online 44 times a year, the single-themed CQ Researcher report offers in-depth, non-biased coverage of political and social issues, with regular reports on topics in health, international affairs, education, the environment, technology and the U.S. economy.

Look your issue or conflict up in Gale OneFile and/or EBSCO to find additional magazine articles. These magazine archives are up to date. Also check out World Book Encyclopedia.

Procon.org is a nonpartisan, nonprofit, 501(c)(3) public charity whose mission is "Promoting education, critical thinking, and informed citizenship by presenting controversial issues in a straightforward, nonpartisan primarily pro-con format."

CIAO: Columbia International Affairs Online (in NNHS Library only)

Columbia International Affairs Online (CIAO) is the most comprehensive source for theory and research in international affairs.
