For Teachers

Teachers may find many of the following resources useful:

Destiny is Notre Dame Academy's online public access catalog. Use this to find out what resources are available in the media center as well as to locate appropriate websites for students. The Destiny home page can be set up to make accessing websites easy for your students.

Enchanted Learning produces children's educational web sites which are designed to capture the imagination while maximizing creativity, learning, and enjoyment. Material available on this website is created so that the navigation and controls are intuitive.

Big6. According to the Big6 website, "The Big6 is the most widely-known and widely-used approach to teaching information and technology skills in the world. The Big6 is an information and technology literacy model and curriculum, implemented in thousands of schools – K through higher education. Some people call the Big6 an information problem-solving strategy because with the Big6, students are able to handle any problem, assignment, decision or task."

International Baccalaureate Organization's website provides a wealth of information and resources to support teachers of the Primary Years Programme.

United Streaming is a service provided by Georgia Public Broadcasting. Teachers may download or stream live videos and video clips to support their curriculum. In addition, there are lesson plans, links to educational websites, blogs, and much more.

Safari Montage allows Notre Dame teachers and students to access hundreds of videos for use in the classroom. Videos are housed on a server on campus and are available on the school's intranet.

Census in Schools. This website provides printable lessons, corresponding worksheets and support materials about the 2010 Census.

ProCon.Org promotes critical thinking, education, and informed citizenship. The sites present controversial issues in a straightforward, nonpartisan, primarily pro-con format. It is an independent, nonpartisan, 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity.
