1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Search engine (Google, Yahoo, Bing, etc.)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Polytechnic High School

My name: - Sara Rodrigues

My title - Teacher

My city: - Los Angeles

My state
(or country if not in the United States): - California5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

Clarity, resources, user friendly format

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

The basic information provided was supported/scaffolded but additional information (quotes from experts, for example) still required independent analysis. This helps build student knowledge and background on a topic while challenging them to deepen their understanding. I also appreciate the increased variety resources being offered, i.e., videos, news reports, etc.

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

My school uses the web site when persuasion is taught (first unit of 10th grade English). It has been used as a resource for exploring an issue as a whole class, for example, social media. It has also been used as a source for individual or group research projects.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

English

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

You're doing a great job! Thanks for all your hard work; it shows because I have watched your site grow and change. Any topics that relate to students' lives are much appreciated. I've been thinking about the benefits/drawbacks of staying in school/going on to college, but my students think about drug use, drinking, skating on public/private property, teen pregnancy, gangs, cell phone policies at school, and other issues that they encounter in their lives.
