Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

Yes

equal info in both sides

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

Because we do not have classroom computers, I print and make copies of both side of the discussed issue and have students read them. I also print many of the articles your site provides links to. It would be great if your both sided info pages were more printer friendly.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Humanities

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

This is a GREAT site and I use it for not only teaching but for personal use as well. I appreciate the lack of bias and the vast amount of info on both sides to allow students to think deeply about previously formed opinions. Keep up the good work!
