

LIBRARY MEDIA CENTER

Roosevelt Library Media Center
Home Page

Research and Reference

IMPORTANT NOTICE: In choosing the resources listed below, care has been taken to select websites that are reputable, reliable and contain accurate information. However, once you click on any one of the following links, you will leave the Roosevelt Middle School website and go to the selected site. Roosevelt Middle School is not responsible for any content posted on these websites.

Roosevelt is an I.B. World School, correct?
[Click here to read books in many languages from
The International Children's Digital Library.](#)

For information on various subjects, choose a topic that interests you by clicking on the arrow to the right of "Change Section" below. You will find links to art, music, science, history, and more.

Change Section:

[Home: Research
& Reference](#)

[DESTINY Online
Catalog \(OPAC\)](#)

DESTINY
Resource Management Solutions™

[Library
Information](#)

Online Databases

Citing Sources

Textbooks

[RMS Moodle
Courses](#)

RMS Word Lists

DebateWise.org

A debate topic site with easy-to-use pro-con format

International Debate Education Association

IDEA presents a helpful list of topics with clearly defined pro and con positions. Might be helpful for persuasive essays. "By offering young people the opportunity to debate the important issues facing them, IDEA strives to cultivate and nurture an engaged, democratic citizenry, underscoring the notions of tolerance, international cooperation, and freedom of expression."

ProCon.org

An independent, non-partisan, non-profit, ProCon.org promotes critical thinking, education, and informed citizenship. Their sites present controversial issues in a straightforward, nonpartisan, primarily pro-con format.

Public Agenda

Public Agenda is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization working to strengthen our democracy's capacity to take on tough issues.

Topic-O-Rama

A resource for controversial topics suitable for persuasive essays.

© Copyright Roosevelt Middle School
3366 Park Blvd. San Diego, CA 92103
Tel: (619) 293-4450 • Fax: (619) 497-0918

