1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Friend/Associate

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

College/University

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - University of NE Omaha

My name: - Abbie

My title - Instructor

My city: - Omaha

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - NE

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

It makes it very easy for them to learn about both/multiple sides of an issue. It also offers links to additional information/resources.

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

Because it provides a list of arguments in support/refutation of an issue, that students can then research and connect together.

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

I teach an Argumentation and Debate course. I send students to this website to look up potential debate topics. I also use this website to look for topics for the competitive speech team on campus.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

Speech/Debate

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

Yes, please.
