1. How did you hear about ProCon.org?

Search engine (Google, Yahoo, Bing, etc.)

2. What grade level do you teach or serve?

High School (9-12)

3. Have you referred students to ProCon.org or used ProCon.org in your instruction?

Yes

4. What's your school?

ProCon.org is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity, and we are supported by foundations and individual donations. Having more and more schools use ProCon.org helps us show potential donors that our educational resources are increasingly popular and useful. Please help us by filling out the information below.

Oh, and don't worry. We won't mail you stuff or call you or share your info with anyone who might. We just want to know which schools have teachers and librarians that use ProCon.org.

My school: - Waterford Mott High School

My name: - Grace Marlowe

My title - Language Arts Teacher

My city: - Waterford

My state

(or country if not in the United States): - MI

5. Did your students find ProCon.org useful?

Yes

6. Do you think using ProCon.org helped to improve your students' critical thinking skills?

Yes

7. How do/did you use ProCon.org in your classroom or library? Details appreciated.

If you have a link to your lesson plan or reference to ProCon.org, please include it below.

Argumentative writing in preparation for the state and ACT testing.

8. What subject(s) do you teach?

English

Humanities

Language Arts

AP English and Composition

9. Would you recommend ProCon.org to teachers or librarians?

Yes

10. Would you like to sign up for our free email updates?

You'll get 1-3 emails per month highlighting our latest research, and you can unsubscribe anytime. Your email address will remain private, and we will not share it with or sell it to any third parties.

I'm already a subscriber. Thanks anyway.

11. Last one. Do you have any additional comments or suggestions for us?

I try to steer my students into new areas of thinking. We avoid abortion and the death penalty for example. Finding new areas of controversy would be great. (The use of technology in the classroom. Cell phones, I-pad, etc.)
