

Enter PJ's 'In a Word' contest
Win a recession-busting care package!

Enter Contest

Top nonprofit employers named

February 24, 2009

Based on testimonials from employees, job-posting site Opportunity Knocks has named 15 organizations as winners of its second-annual Peoples Choice Best Nonprofit to Work For Awards.

A wide range of factors were considered in nominating and choosing the winners, including work-life balance, adherence to mission and camaraderie of employees.

Five winners were named in each of three categories, according to the size of groups' operating budgets:

Operating budget of $2.5 million or less

- 100 Black Men of Atlanta
- Breast Cancer Connections
- Ella Baker Center for Human Rights
- Open Books
- ProCon.org

Operating budget of $2.5 million to $5 million

- Center for Literacy
- Homeless Prenatal Program
- Indian Oaks Academy
- Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Georgia Chapter
- United Way of the Central Savannah River Area

Operating budget of $5 million or more

- Facing History and Ourselves
- Family Planning Council
- Hillcrest Family Services
- The Doe Fund

- World Wildlife Fund

Email this page

- Professional Area: Careers/human resources

Our Partners

©2009 Philanthropy Journal. A publication of the A.J. Fletcher Foundation
Website designed and developed by DesignHammer Media Group, LLC
Contact/Staff | Sitemap | Privacy Policy | Copyright

